Wright's Epsom Lithia Water.

This water belongs to the saline class, of which the essential and active agent is Sulphate of Magnesia (Epsom Salts). The great preponderance of this agent gives it marked advantage over other waters of its kind. Its effects are laxative, diuretic, tonic and alterative. It is indicated in all functional derangements of the stomach, bowels, liver, kidneys and bladder. The laxative action is peculiarly effectual and as a remedy for constipation it is without a rival among mineral waters, or drug remedies. If you are a subject of this common and annoying complaint give Wright's water a fair trial, and you will certianly be pleased.

MR. KRUGER'S WIFE DEAD.

Seperation from Her Husband and the Death of Her Daughter Hastened Her End.

Pretoria, July 21.—Mrs. Kruger, wife of former President Kruger, of the South African Republic, died yesterday of pneumonia, after an illness of three days. She was 67 years old.

Mrs. Kruger's long separation from her husband, combined with the death of her favorite daughter, Mrs. Smith, last week, had completely broken her spirits. Mr. Eloff and many members of the Kruger family were at her bedside when she passed away.

MR. KRUGER HEARS THE NEWS.

London, July 22.—"Owing to the Sunday telegraph hours in Holland," says a dispatch to The Daily Mail, from Hilversum, "Mr. Kruger was not informed of his wife's death until the evening. The news was broken to him by Dr. Heymans and Secretary Boeschoten. Mr. Kruger, who had just returned from Hilversum church, burst into tears and asked to be left alone. He exclaimed, 'She was a good wife. We quarrelled only once, and that was six months after we were married.' He prayed for a long time and is now calmly sleeping, his Bible beside his bed.

"The Transvaal and Orange Free State flags flying above the White villa were draped and half-masted.'

Anti-Lynching Movement

Baltimore News.

The Southern States seem at last to have awakened to a thorough realization of the disgrace which attaches to the application of lynch law and to have determined to put an end to the practice. Only a few days ago a resolution was introduced in the Alabama convention looking to that end! and yesterday, in the Virginia convention, another was introduced even more rigorous in its nature. It provides that the governor shall offer a reward of $500 for the arrest and conviction of every person who shall engage in the offense; that the crime shall be murder in the first degree where the hanging or lynching is accomplished, and that it shall be the duty of the governor to pay $1,000 to the heirs of any person lynched, the money to come out of the State treasury and be charged to the county or city in which the crime was committed. The trouble with this is the same which marks many well-intended efforts at reform—goes to far and by its own severity will defeat its purpose. Juries will not convict lynchers of murder in the first degree, and in this respect the resolution needs amendment. But the spirit of it is right, and the convention may be trusted to put it into working form.

DAY OF PRAYER IN MISSOURI.

THE HOTTEST WEATHER ON RECORD

The Mercury Went Up to 108 Degrees in St. Louis Yet Crowds Attended Nearly All the Churches Where Prayers Were Offered for Rain.

St. Louis, July 21.—On this, the day that Governor Dockery designated for fasting and prayer to God that the present drought might be broken in Missouri, allrecords for hot weatther in St. Louis were broken, the Weather Bureau thermometer on the custom house registering 108 degrees. On the streets and in exposed places, the mercury went many degrees higher. The record broken was that of 106 made in the early eighties. As early as 7 a. m. the day gave promise of being unusually warm. At that time the thermometer registered ninety degrees, and from then on, until 3:30 p. m., the mercury steadily climbed upward under the impulse of a fierce sun shining from a cloudless sky. Hardly a breath of air stirred all day. The Governor's proclamation was very generally heeded, nearly every church in the city holding well attended services, given up to prayer that the drought which has prevailed several months and threatens the destruction of all vegetation might be broken.

This is the second proclamation of the character ever made in the history of Missouri. In 1875, a time of drought and grasshopper pest, Governor Charles H. Hardin called upon the people of the State to pray for relief. This call was also generally observed.

FEAR OF FOREIGN GOLD.

Mr. Bryan is Living Back in '96' While the World Moves On.

Chicago Record-Herald.

Mr. Bryan's editorial on the Ohio platform is chiefly notable for what the author has to say of the money question. The Democratic convention at Columbus showed very clearly that it wished to drop this question from politics and that it considered that it was definitely settled against the contentions of the party in 1896. Mr. Bryan stands where he did in 1896, and says:

"The gold standard will not be complete until gold is the only legal tender money and bank notes the only paper money. Then our supply of primary money will be controlled by foreign financiers and our supply of credit money by domestic financiers."

The power of the foreigner was one of the notes of alarm sounded during the campaign of 1896, but since that time the foreigner has been in a panic over the power of the United States. In purely commercial transactions we have become the great creditor nation of the world. Not only are our exports the greatest of all, but they exceed our imports by an enormous sum. Complete official returns for the eleven months ended May are: Exports, $1,359,961, 314; imports $754,862,478.

This uneven exchange will be balanced in various ways, but so far as it implies power over primary money the advantage is manifestly with the United States, which we may add, is a great gold producer, as well as a great exporter of manufactures and agricultural staples. It led the world in gold production in 1900 and had much the largest stock of gold on hand. Furthermore,as affecting the quantitive theory of money, it i s to be observed that there has been an enormous increase in the output of gold since the premises of the argument of 1896 were formulated. The yearly production had increased from $155,522,000 in 1893 to $311,506 in 1899, and but for the Transvaal war the total would have been still larger in 1900. As it was it amounted to $255,924,654, and outside the Transvaal there was an increase of $16,171,000 over the output of the year before.

Increase of population lags far behind this advance, and the foreign financier, istead of being a dictator and monopolist, is kept busy as the agent who pays for American goods. So there is neither a dearth of money, which is unusually plentiful, nor captivity.

Such are the indisputable facts of our recent development, and no politician can strengthen his position by ignoring them. The power of the foreigner, which was permissible as a prediction, is now a myth whose continued recital sacrifices everything to a personal consistency of opinion. Mr. Bryan is arresting his own development and living back in 1896 while the world is moving.

TUBE WORKERS ORGANIZED.

YESTERDAY'S IMPORTANT EVENT.

The Strikers Expect to Secure Enough Men to Keep the National Tube Works Idle—President Shaffer Satisfied With the Week's Results.

Pittsburg, July 21.—The important event of the strike history of the day is the organization of the tube workers at McKeesport. The word from there tonight is that after long and arduous work, Assistant Secretary Tighe, of the Amalgamated Association, succeeded in organizing 125 men of the National Tube Works Company. At the meeting 25 skilled men from each of the departments were initiated into the mysteries of the Amalgamated Association, and Mr. Tighe claims that within 48 hours enough workmen will be secured to keep the entire plant closed down, affecting 9,000 men. From Wellsville, nothing has been received here except that the situation is unchanged and the strikers say everything is satisfactory to them. It is believed, however, that an attempt will be made to put the men to work tomorrow. While the strikers say they will not commit any overt act, there is an uneasy feeling manifest throughout the entire valley and no one is willing to anticipate the result of the proposed attempt to put these men to work. When seen tonight President Shaffer expressed himself as being more than satisfied with the week's results. He said: "Things are very much better than I thought the would be. More mills are shut down than we anticipated, or could expect. There is more determination on the part of the men to aid us morally and financially and from other labor organizations and a vastly more supporting general public than we were looking for. A message from Duncanville says the men are out there.

"We have lost no ground in the mills thrown idle in Pittsburg. Our organizers at Wellsville report that after the advent of a solitary worker there from Vandergrift to go into the mill on Saturday, Wellsville and East Liverpool were scoured to find other men on a similar mission and found not one. I can still repeat what I have said before in regard to the non-union men taking our places. If the United States Steel Corporation officials can get non-union men, I will help lead the men into the mills."

The 22-inch mill at the Boston iron and steel plant of the National Tube Company, at McKeesport, will resume operations in the morning after a shut-down lasting three weeks. The plant was closed for repairs. A great many men will be benefited by the mill resuming operations,but they were all glad to get the three weeks' vacation. The situation as to the Dewee-Wood plant remains unchanged. Various rumors were in circulation throughout the town during the afternoon and evening to the effect that the mills would try to resume operations tomorrow, but they could not be confirmed. The company officials persist in their refusal to name the date for resumption.

EDITORS WANT LIBERTY

Russian Emperor Was About to Let Down the Bars Altogether but the Reactionary Crowd Scared Him.

St. Petersburg, Monday, July 8.—The grant of more liberal press regulations affords additional proof that Emperor Nicholas has emancipated himself from the advisers, who still hold the ideas which prevailed during the unhappy period that followed the murder of the Czar Liberat to Alexander I. As an instance of more benevolent reforms the following example is given:

A deputation of editors, led by a courageous literateur who is nolonger actively connected with the press,went before His Majesty with their humble petition. "Give us a press law," they pleaded. "Let us be as Your Majesty may deem it proper, but give us a law. Let us know where we stand. Free us from the domination of officials whose will is their only law. Give us as much freedom as you can. We will not abuse it."

The Emperor made a gracious response. The editors and publishers breathed a deep sigh of relief. But they were cruelly disappointed. The reactionary crowd gained the ear of the Emperor. An artificial agitation was started. The machinery of government and the police were set in motion and the Emperor was persuaded that fanatical elements only waited for the grant of modicum of liberty in order to attck throne, altar and his own life. The law now granted will restore courage to the press. Hitherto one warning from the censor has spread a panic through the editorial rooms. Two have put them under the sword of Damocles and three were regarded as preliminary to extinction, which was rarely long delayed. After three warnings the authorities could shut up the newspapers at any moment. Now, the first notice or warning will remain in force only a year if another does not follow within the year: the second will expire within that period, and the third will within that period, and the third will remain in force only three years. The action with regard to the liberty of the press is taken by many to be a forerunner of an era of reform in Russia.

JONES CREATES A SCENE.

Ordered to be Taken Out of the Hall, He Defied Arrest and Finally Had His Own Way.

Montgomery, Ala., July 20.—An exciting scene occurred today in the constitutional convention over the disposal of a resolution protesting against free passes being accepted by any State officer. Former Governor Jones protested against the tabling of the resolution and appealed from the ruling of the chair. President Knox ordered Mr. Jones to take his seat until the question could be stated. The former Governor refused and asked if his appeal was going to be put.

Chairman Knox again ordered him to his chair, but Mr. Jones refused and the president directed the sergeant-at-arms to seat the ex-Governor.

Mr. Jones said there was no necessity for any heat. The chair insisted on his being seated, however, and amid great excitement, directed the sergeant-at-arms to remove Mr. Jones from the hall.

Mr. Jones passionately exclaimed: "If any one attempts it, it will be done over my dead body."

The disorder in the hall became general. Mr. Bulger, of Tallapoosa, loudly insisted that the sergeant-at- arms should do his duty.

"Suppose you come over and do it!" shouted Mr. Jones.

The chair again requested the former Governor's removal, but the Governor resisted and exclaimed: "The chair will put your appeal."

Mr. Jones sat down and the chair began to state the question. He was interrupted by Mr. Jones and the chair once more ordered the sergeant-at arms to execute the order.

As the sergeant-at-arms approached, Mr. Jones drew a small pocket knife, but did not open it and soon returned it to his pocket.

Mr. Jones said: "If the chair will keep its temper"—

President Knox interrupted: "It is not the chair who is out of temper."

Mr. Jones then sat down, the chair put the appeal and was overwhelmingly sustained.

Another Anniversary.

Terre Haute Express.

The St. Louis people wish to erect a statute of Napoleon for the 100th anniversary of the purchase of Louisiana, and the British will celebrate the 1,000th anniversary of Alfred, the good Saxon King, but an anniversary has slipped by which has the charm of even figures and associations with a man whom Napoleon was willing to imitate and whose successor he considered himself. Last Friday, July 12, was the 2,000th anniversary of Julius Caesar. N statesman or conquer or in the old World made a more indelible impression upon all time than the great Julius.Every day this month we repeated the name he gave to July and we begin our years with January 1 according to his calendar, but in these we remember the little things of a man who many believe was the greatest in his line of deeds that ever lived. Perhaps St. Louis can see its way to setting up Caesar by the side of Napoleon.

Ex-Governor Pattison

Philadelphia Times.

A leader who hesitates for fear of complicating matters will never lead to victory. What Democrats need now is courage—the courage of their convictions. Mr. Bryan has all the courage of his krongheadedness, and he has so overawed good Democrats in Pennsylvania that they are afraid to say what they know to be true, even when their brethern elsewehere have shown them the way. We believe that the Pennsylvania Democracy will awaken to its opportunities this year, and we do not doubt that the deserved influence of ex-Governor Pattison will be usefully exerted in the cause of good government. He has many qualifications for successful leadership, but he shall have done so we must respect his request not to "complicate matters in the next national campaign" by a suggestion of his candicacy.

GREAT WEALTH.

Is perfect health. How do you feel? Ever have attacks of indigestion and Dyspepsia? Most people have. "Coleman's Guarantee" will positively cure these common ailments—"take it, eat what you want and be happy." Price 50c. large bottle at druggists.

A DISCOVERY.

Mr. James R. Coleman, a native of Pittsylvania county, Virginia, was afflicted with indigestion for twelve years; he could eat no solid food without great agony, and could not sleep at night.He was treated by eminent physicians who pronounced his case hopeless. As a last result he began the use of a preparation of his own as an experiment and found relief at once; in six week's time he was able to resume his farm work, a cured man. This was six years ago and he has had no return of the symptoms up to this time.

Mr. Coleman called the remedy 'Coleman's Guarantee," and the results from its use among his friends were so marvelous that The Coleman Remedy Company was formed last year at Danville, Va., for the general sale of the preparation. "Coleman's Guarantee" is sold by druggists at 50c (large) bottles. Ask for booklet telling of many wonderful cures.

The Skin AN INDEX TO THE BLOOD

Millions of little glands or tubes connect the blood with the skin, and through these small drain pipes perspiration passes out, carrying with it the impurities that are thrown off by the blood. Should the pores of the skin be entirely closed for even a brief space of time, and the poisonous matter forced back into the circulation, instant death would result. In addition to the sweat glands, the skin is provided with certain others which pour out upon it an oily substance, keeping the skin pliable and soft and protecting it from heat and cold. The blood and skin are so closely related that whatever affects one seriously interferes with the functions of the other. Not only health, but life itself, depends upon perfect harmony between the blood and skin. When, therefore, the blood becomes poisoned from any cause, it quickly manifests itself upon the skin in the form of sores and ulcers, pimples and various eruptive diseases. By the character of the sore we are enabled to determine the nature of the poison or humor in the blood, as every disease originating in the blood has its own peculiar sore or pimple. The skin is not only affected by the poisons generated in the system, but poisons from without enter through the open glands or pores and quickly infect the blood. Mercury rubbed upon the skin will produce Rheumatism, and Poison Oak and Ivy and other wild plants gain easy access to the blood through the skin. As so-called skin diseases originate in the blood, the application of powders, soaps and washes can do no permanent good, but often do immense damage by closing up the outlet to these little tubes and interfering with the natural action of the skin. The treatment must begin with the blood, and the acid or other poisons antidoted or neutralized. S. S. S. does this and purifies the circulation, builds up the blood and flushes the little glands or pores with pure, new blood, and restores healthy action to the skin. The use of cosmetics never yet brought health and beauty to a rough, red, pimply skin or sallow complexion. What is needed is rich, pure blood, such as S. S. S. makes. It not only relieves you of all disfiguring blackheads, blotches and irritating, itching eruptions, but improves your general health. S. S. S. contains no mercury, potash, arsenic or other mineral, but is a purely vegetable remedy and the safest and best in all blood and skin troubles. Write our physicians for advice or information; they have made a study of blood and skin diseases, and you can have the best medical advice without cost. Book on Blood and Skin Diseases free. WINE OF CARDUI

A SURE MEDICINE.

HANDSOM, VA., Dec. 21.

I have been suffering from female weakness for four years, and have taken many medicines, but Wine of Cardui and Black-Draught have done more for me than anything else.

MRS. CAROLINE EVANS.

McELREE'S Wine of Cardui

It is a mistake to take any and every kind of medicine when you are sick. There is danger in it. Most of the so-called cures for "female weakness" do nothing more than deaden the pain temporarily, and when the effect wears away the patient is weaker and sicker than before. It is never wise to take chances. You have only one life, and that is dear and precious. If you have any pain, ache, disorder or weakness in the feminine organs, nothing will help you like Wine of Cardui. It helps do away with morning sickness during the early stages of pregnancy, and modifies the pains of childbirth; recovery is rapid and future health is assured. The Wine is purely vegetable, being made of herbs whose medicinal properties act directly upon the organs of womanhood. It is a long-tried remedy, and has many years of success behind it. It is sure. Why take a chance medicine when you can get a sure medicine?

When Knighthood Was in Flower.

Chicago Times-Herald.

When knighthood was in flower, ah,
It never came to pass
That Reuben went to town and died
From blowing out the gas.

When knighthood was in flower men—
Deaf to the mutterings—
Ne'er sat while women held to straps
And called them hogs and things.

When knighthood was in flower maids
Were never sore beset
With terror lest their knights should fall
The cigarette.

When knighthood was in flower, oh,
The women who were high
Ne'er rode with poodles in their laps
And left the babes to die.

When knighthood was in flower wealth
Was not despised by men,
But there were other things they thought
Worth striving after then.

When knighthood was in flower sweet,
Sweet women always stayed
At home istead of lecturing
Or going on parade.

When knighthood was in flower knights
Were not compelled to mix
Up with gentlewomen in
The game of politics.

When knighthood was in flower there
Was need of knightly chaps—
And is there room for such today?—
Ah, well, perhaps—perhaps.

New Territories and Suffrage.

Louisville Courier-Journal.

Our acquisition of new territory has still further contributed to bring universal suffrage into disfavor. There was an effort made to limit suffrage in Hawaii by act of Congress, but it miscarried. An anti-administration majority in the legislature resulted, and this has caused much rtibulation, to the faithful at home. Leading Republican papers have enlarged upon the folly of giving the classes of the Hawaiians the power to control their own local affairs. Yet the native Hawaiians are nearly all educated, though the same is not true of some of the foreign elements of the population. The consequence of the experiment in Hawaii has been a still further weakening of the attachment to universal suffrage.

Now the same difficulty confronts us in Cuba. The constitutional convention favors universal suffrage.The population there is largely made up of illiterates. The negro contingent is large. The property owning class are not satisfied with universal suffrage, but they see no prospect of getting it rescinded. Hence, they are talking of plural voting for themselves as an offset. But this sort of voting is also unpopular and, if accorded, would probably prove inadequate. The situation there is serious, but the Cubans are pressing for a speedy recognition of their constitution.

Mexico and the United States.

St. Louis Globe-Democrat.

Somebody seems to have been circulating queer tales on the other side of the Rio Grande about this country. Here is the Mexican Herald, for instance, saying the "the absorption of Mexico by the United tSates, would be an injury to both countries. The American republic if it is to endure as a republic, must rest on the consent of a homogeneous people." Moreover, that paper says, the American capitalists who have money invested in Mexico will "some day be glad that their funds are placed in a country where the tradititon of property rights is not threatened by the new communism."

Our Mexican contemporary is astray. There has been not alk in the United States about an "absorption of Mexico." There is not the faintest danger of the "new communism" doing any injury to capitalist or property rights in the United tSates. The United States is on terms of the closest intimacy with the Mexican republic. It desires to continue this condition. The trade of the two countries with each other is increasing year by year. The social ties between them are constantly being extended and strengthened. More United States capital is invested in Mexico than has been obtained by that country from any other nation. This, too, is steadily on the increase.

The Kanawha Precedes General Wood.

New York, July 21.—The United States government steam launch Kanawha, Capt. Miller, arrived this morning from Havana, via Charleston. The Kanawha has been in Cuban waters for the past eighteen months and has been used by General Wood in his trips around the island of Cuba. The Kanawha started north in advance of General Wood, who is expected to leave Havana on Tuesday next, by the Ward Line steamer Espehanza and is due to arrive here on Friday. Lieutenant Carpenter, of General Wood's staff, who was apassenger on the Kanawha, will perfect the necessary arrangements for the transfer of General Wood to the Kanawha on his arrival at quarantine. He will probably take an extended trip along the New England coast immediately after his arrival.

PHILADELPHIA SENSATION.

How a Judge Put Himself at Odds With the Reform Element.

Philadelphia Public Ledger.

The proceedings in court on Monday before Judge Stevenson, which resulted in the discharge of several women summarily sentenced to the House of Correction by Magistrate Eisenbrown,calls for many words of comment, some of which may be reserved for future use. The case itself ought to be clearly understood. The sentenced women, or most of them, making their appeal to the higher court for protection against the arbitrary action of a magistrate, were old offenders against the law who had been unmolested by the police because of their political influence. They were very far from being the "poor unfortunates" for whom Judge Stevenson invoked the law's protection, as was was evidenced by the counsel for their defense. The poor unfortunates, as a matter of fact, never get as much as a hearing in a higher court as they get in the lower.

It was not an easy matter to get these defendants before any court that would deal out justice to them. But Attorney Gibboney, of the Law and Order Society, managed to get evidence against them, and deemed himself fortunate in finding among the magistrtes of Philadelphia two or three, elected by reform votes, who were uninfluenced by the political powers of the city and proof against liberty. Magistrate Elsinbrown was one of these. The defendants were brought before him. He treated them to exact justice as established by precendent in magistrates' courts. They were rich and influential, but they were sentenced to the House of Correction just as poor unfortunates would have been sentenced if they had been charged with the same offenses. A great commotion resulted, and high-priced attorneys were employed to save these wealthy defendants from disgrace. An appeal was taken, and the case came before Judge Stevenson on Monday. The magistrates' docket was found to be technically defective, and after a notable speech by Mr. Gibboney defending the action of the Law and Order Society and the conduct of Magistrate Eisenbrown, Judge Stevenson delivered an opinion admittedly written in advance of the hearing, discharging the defendants.

This is an exact statement of the facts of this extraordinary case,and the community can make its choice between the illegal justice of Magistrate Eisenbrown and the legal injustice of Judge Stevenson's decision. There is no doubt about the legal soundness of judge's decision. It ought to be good law when it was prepared leisurely in advance of the hearing. But the application of it was excremly unfortunate. The effect of it is to protect from just punishment women who had notoriously defied the law for years under political and police protection. It was made under a pretense of protecting the "poor and unfortunate" from magisterial persecution, although it was obviously applied for the protection of the rich and the influential. Judge Stevenson has been talked about as a possible candidate to be put upon the reform ticket. His nomination now upon that ticket would be a burlesque upon reform. We could better stand a district attorney nominated by the gang than a judge who writes his opinion in advance of a hearing.

First View of the Exposition.

The most impressive view is from the Triumphal Bridge just at dusk. The great towers of the bridge make a dignified, stately aproach to the court with is play-day effect—its domes and pinnacles and warm tower as the climax of it all You have hardly realized the scene as it appears in the dusk, when on the rows of posts tiny dots of light appear in clusters, like little pink buds in a nosegay. You become gently aware of similar pink points on the tower—apparently millions of them; and on either side they outline all the buildings—in rows about the panels on the domes, under arches, over windows, everywhere. The buildings themselves seem for an instant to become invisible, and you see only their outline marked in these tiny dots of fire. And the court seems larger than it was by sunlight, for you seem to see a whole city of towers and domes, and eaves and doors, outlined in sparks. Then the pink points grow brighter and change their hue, and in another moment the full illumination bursts forth, and the whole great court becomes luminous with a soft brillancy, that does not tire the eye. And it is a new kind of brillancy. You are face to face with the most magnificent and artistic nocturnal scene that man has ever made. It is an effect so novel and so gentle in its glow that you think of fairy-land, not a fairy-land of tinsel, but the fairy-land that you once believed in.

I had the pleasure to see this illumination first in the company of a child of ten years. She stood for a minute in speechless wonder. Then she cried: "Oh, isn't it beautiful!" And she danced in forgetfulness of herself and asked: "Is it really real?" For the sensation is of an optical illusion. You ask yourself if it be not a trick played on you with mirrors and lenses.

Nor do you forget that the chromatic note of green which comes out everywhere is the green of Niagagra, and that the beautiful world of light is the illuminating power of the great cataract. If you could forget this fact,there is just enough noise of fountains to remind you of it, and symbolical representations of the fails in sculpture greet you as you gaze at the tower. It is the great Cataract silently expressing its power in a soft, fairy-like, nocturnal, outdoor scene of wonderful illumination.

In our way of laundering. Nothing too small to receive attention, nothing too big to be successfully treated. The Gate City Steam Laundry does perfect work, because clear, clean, soft water is used. No injurious chemicals are used. Skiled help is employed. Great care is taken. We charge ordinary rates but work is much above the ordinary. Medium gloss the thing to wear on Picnic Excursions. In fact it's economy to wear it at all times; dust and soot will not stick to your collars, cuffs and shirt bosoms, to be ground in by your other clothing. To Be Cured of Constipation
People who suffer from habitual constipation with all its attendant ills; clogged stomach and bowels, sluggish liver, heartburn, indigestion, and thin and impure blood, are too apt to believe that the only remedy is violent purgatives. The contrary is the case. Such cathartics, even if they do move the bowels, are irritating and griping, leave the stomach inflamed and enfeebled and the constipated condition recurs with greater difficulty of cure and the sufferer constantly growing worse. There is a laxative that moves the bowels without pain or griping, cleanses the stomach, sharpens the appetite, stimulates the liver, strengthens the nerves, and purifies the blood, while its marvellous tonic properties tone up the entire system and keep it healthy.
Laxakola Does It
Its remarkable tonic properties reach every organ—the liver, kidneys and stomach, nerve, heart and brain—and removes the cause of your debilitated condition. This is the only way to secure an absolute and permanent cure.
Laxakola is the only medicine for babies, is purely vegetable and its action is gentle, speedy and effective. For coated tongue, simple fevers, colds, chills and languid feeling it is the ideal medicine.
It tastes good. ☞ Children like it and ask for it.
Laxakola, the great tonic laxative, is not only the most efficient of family remedies, but the most economical, because it combines two medicines, viz: laxative and tonic, and at one price. No other remedy gives so much for the money. At druggists, 25c. and 50c., or send for free sample to LAXAKOLA CO., 122 Nassau Street, N. Y., or 356 Dearborn Street, Chicago.

KILGO AND CRAWFORD FIGHT.

TRINITY'S PRESIDENT AND A WINSTON HARDWARE MAN SCRAP.

The Occurence Took Place on the Raleigh Train—Outcome of Dr. Kilgo's Speech in the "Harmony" Meeting Held in Greensboro Sometime Ago—No Serious Damage Done.

A small fisticuff occurred this morning on the east bound train between Gibsonville and Burlington. The occurrence was between Dr. John C. Kilgo, president of Trinity College, and Mr. Robert B. Crawford, of Winston. Several blows were passed, but no serious damage to either participant resulted. The causes that led up to the fight are as follows: Mr. Crawford is a son of Rev. L. W. Crawford, of this city, and is the president of the Advocate Publishing Company, publishers of the North Carolina Christian Advocate, of which paper Rev. L. W. Crawford is the editor. Many of our readers will remember that several months ago, what was termed a "harmony" meeting was held in this city, in the office of Prof. O. W. Carr. At this meeting were present several gentlemen of the city, and Dr. Kilgo. The Doctor made the gathering a speech, in the course of which he read a clipping from the North Carolina Christian Advocate, which was the closing paragraph of a complimentary article on Trinity College. The paragraph referred to gave the list of the Executive Committee of the College, and then stated that they all lived in the bounds of the North Carolina Conference. Dr. Kilgo read the closing part of this, and then without naming the paper from which it was clipped, stated that it was a veiled attack on Trinity College. This meeting was reported to several of the larger Sate papers by the same correspondent, and Mr. R. B. Crawford after reading one of the articles, referred to, sat down and wrote Dr. Kilgo a letter in which he asked the Doctor if his speech had been correctly reported by the paper, and if so what he meant by it. The Doctor wrote him in reply that if he wanted to know if he said what he was reported to have said he would have to ask some one who was present at the meeting.

This morning Dr. Kilgo was a passenger on the east bound train leaving here about 8 o'clock. Mr. R. B. Crawford was also a passenger on the same train, on his way to Granville county to join his wife who is visiting there. Seeing Dr. Kilgo on the train, Mr. Crawford engaged him in conversation, asking him about the speech made in this city. After some conversation he told Dr. Kilgo that he thought that he (the Doctor) had not treated him as a gentleman in his answer to his (Crawford's) letter. Dr. Kilgo thereupon replied to Mr. Crawford that he (Crawford) was no gentleman. According to the ruling of the police court, this is "language calculated to bring on a breach of the peace," and in this case it brought on the breach.

Dr. Kilgo and Mr. Crawford after passing a number of blows, were separated by friends.

FIRE SATURDAY NIGHT.

Building Used as a Stable Was Burned—The Damage.

Saturday evening about 8 o'clock an alarm of fire was turned in from the box located near the McAdoo hotel. The fire was located in a wooden building in the rear of the Merchant's Grocery Company, and used by them as a stable. Within the building at the time of the fire was a quantity of salt, two horses, hay and about a half car load of bottles. The fire was burning fiercely when the firemen arrived on the scene, but once they were at work they made short shift of it. The structure was, however, a total loss. It was not insured, and was the property of Mr. Moses Cone.

Early Sunday morning fire again broke out in the same building and again the department was summoned out. This time the fire was put out for good.

Everything New this Season.

The Climax of all tented amusements, A. G. Allen's Big Original New Orleans Colored Minstrels, will appear here Thursday night, July 25th, under canvas. The company numbers more than 100 people and includes some of the best singers, dancers, cakewalkers, and colored specialty artists known among the colored race. This is the only Minstrel Company in the United States that shows under canvas. Mr. Allen is the originator of the idea and he has succeeded in getting together a minstrel organization of such a size and magnitude that would be impossible to produce in an opera house. Owing to the large seating capacity of his tent he is enabled to place the price of admission at 15 and 25 cents.

An Able Sermon.

INSTANTLY KILLED.

Young Man Meets Death Saturday Night Under the Car Wheels.

A young white man, Lake Landreth by name, was killed Saturday night about one o'clock on the yards of the Southern Railway in this city. In company with other young men he had gotten upon a shifting freight train, and was riding to the depot. In attempting to pass from one car to another he made a misstep and fell to the track between the cars. The wheels of the cars passed over his neck, severing it completely from his body. The remains were examined by Coroner Turner, who decided that no inquest was necessary. No blame is attached to the railway company or their operatives. The remains of the young men were interred yesterday afternoon in Greene Hill cemetery.

MORE ROBBERIES.

Two Residences and a Store Robbed in the Country Saturday.

Robberies in and around Greensboro continue to multiply. Saturday morning about eleven o'clock a thief entered ex-sheriff Gilmer's store on what is known as the McConnel road leading out to Brick church and took various things out to the amount of about $10. The thief then went to the residence of Mr. Sam Hanner, nearby, and robbed it of a suit of clothes and other articles. A second residence was also robbed, presumably by the same thief, and another suit of clothes obtained.

Mr. Gilmer was in the city Saturday, and went home late in the afternoon. Yesterday he tracked the thief to this city, and also obtained a fair description of him but so far has been unable to locate his man.

Bought Hunting Preserres.

Mr. Charles Strong Guthrie, of New York, has purchased a tract of land near Whitsett Institute from Mr. and Mrs. Cyrus Wharton, and will keep it as a hunting preserve. The tract embraces 478 acres, and brought over five thousand dollars. It is in an ideal spot for such a preserve, the hunting there being fine. The buildings there will be used by Mr. Guthrie as a club house. The property will be in charge of Mr. F. K. Trogdon, of this city. He will move there and take possession about the first of October.

Base Ball Saturday.

The game of baseball Saturday afternoon between the Center team and the Proximity team resulted in a victory for the former team by the score of 17 to 4. The game was umpired in a most satisfactory manner to both teams by Mr. L. J. Brandt. The Proximity team say that the Center team had professional players from Oak Ridge and some from this city,and that if the line up had been of their home team the Proximity team would have won.

The report of the firearm was heard down street. No clue as to who the burglars were is known.

MacKnight Again.

Danville, Va., July 20, 1901.
Chief of Police, Greensboro, N. C.:

Dear Sir—By comparing the enclosed extract, and clipping, I believe you will conclude that Prof. Harry MacKnight and G. C. Smith are one and the same person. Will ship the type writer Monday to G. C. Smith, care of Miss Clara J. Hamner, High Point, so if you are interested in the case,you can look after it. The information is given for what it is worth. I have sent the original letter and some other clippings to the chief of police at High Point. Not wishing to get mixed up in the affair or to have any name published, I omit it. Respectfully,

Extract from a letter received July 20, 1901. No date or address given, but the envelope was postmarked, "Greensboro, N. C., July 19, 1901."

"Mr. ————, Danville, Va.:

"Dear Sir—I am going to Salisbury to a hospital for a few days until I get well of poison, etc. Please express my typewriter to Miss Clara J. Hamner, High Point, N. C. Let charges follow. I am broke out all over with the rash. Hoping to see you in the near future, etc. Yours truly,

(Signed) G. C. SMIITH.

The extract alluded to is a Danville copy of an extract from a Greensboro paper.

Sick and Alone.

Chief of Police has received information that a negro man is down with the fever in a house on Dodson street, and that there is no one to wait on him, give him food, water, or anything else. The city can do nothing about the matter, and so far the county has not.

This afternoon Chief Scott carried a physician to the house. They found the negro as reported. He is a young darkey and is in a serious condition. He has typhoid fever. This afternoon late, Chief Scott is trying to have the darkey admitted to the colored hospital on High street, and thinks it probable that he will be successful.

A Crime or a Disease.

Cleveland Leader.

The Supreme Court of New York has been asked to decide whether habitual drunkenness is crime for which a person may be committed to the workhouse.

The matter came before the court on a writ of habeas corpus obtained by the attorneys of a man who had been sent to Blackwells Island on conviction of the charge of vagrancy, it having been proved that he was a habitual drunkards. The prisoner pleaded that he was worth $50,000, which was held for him in trust, and that he had an income of $2,500. Therefore, he could not be accused justly of vagrancy. The judge was unable to decide the question without consultation. "Habitual drunkenness," he declared, "is a nuisance to the public and should not be countenanced. I believe habitual drunkards should be put somewhere where they can do no harm to themselves or any one else, but unless the law authorizes such procedure I cannot see how a man can be convicted of such an offense or be imprisoned as a habitual drunkeard." Therefore, he held the case open for a day or two.

Either habitual drunkenness is a crime or it is a disease. In any event the State appears to be responsible for it so long as it permits the sale of liquor which makes habitual drunkards. If that is so, the State ought either to put the drunkards away where they can do no harm or send them to a hospital and treat them until they are cured of the appetite for liqor. No wonder the judge of the New York Supreme Court hesitated to decide that question when he knew the responsibility of the State.

A Purely Political Campaign

Philadelphia Record.

Gov. Nash, the Republican candidate for the governorship of Ohio,and Col. James Kilbourne, his Democratic opponent, both of whom reside in Columbus, propose to set an example worthy of imitation by candidates for public offices everywhere. Each will be above the political principles of the other in the most vigorous terms, but neither will say aught reflecting upon the personal character of the other. The coming Ohio campaign will, therefore, be purely a political and not a personal one. This is what every election canvass should be.

If candidates for office be public thieves they should be denounced as such, for public reasons only; but when candidates are of good personal character the personal element should be entirely eliminated from the canvass, except in so far as one candidate may be better equipped in point of ability and experience than the other for the duties of the office to be filled. Gov. Nash and Col. Kilbourne are to be commended for their determination to countenance no mud slinging in the coming Ohio campaign.

I have been afflicted with Catarrh for 10 years, and for years past could not hear with any satisfaction. I tried different waters—Buffalo Lithia, the White Sulphur of Mt. Airy, Warren County water, and Moore's—also all kinds of medicine recommended for Catarrh, including Hall's Catarrh Cure. Several physicians treated me; but I got no relief until I used Vade Mecum water. It has done me more good in four weeks than all other remedies in years. I am in my 89th year, and have gained seven pounds since I begun to use this water. It has given me a new lease on life. In all my long life I have never known such a remedy. It is a blessing from God, intended by Him to heal the people. ALEX NADING, Winston, N. C., October 22, 1900.

NEGROES SEEK VENGEANCE.

They Invade a Mississippi Town and Hold Up Three White Men.

Cleveland, Miss., July 21.—A band of armed negroes, one of whom was known, rode into Cleveland at 1:30 o'clock this morning and stopping a party of three white men on the main street, the negroes made a threatening demostration. Being called upon to identify themselves the answered by bringing their rifles into play. One of the negroes was quickly killed by the white men, another was wounded and is reported to have been found this morning on the otskirts of town, and the others escaped, although it is supposed that more than three were hurt. They were all armed with Winchester rifles and were well mounted.

Excitement was at fever heat during the remainder of the night, squads of armed men parolled the streets until daylight. The trouble grew out of the lynching of Jesse Philips, a negro, in the earlier part of the night. The negroes in this section are organized into "lodges," "secret orders" and "protective societies," and as Phillips was a leader among them, itw as feared that the killing of young Reed, the planter, a few days ago, was a studied scheme on the part of the negroes. The excitement of last night has entirely abated. It has been decided that the breaking up of these negro organizations is necssary and there is no doubt that this decision will be inforced.The town is more quiet than is usually the case, even on Sunday.

GRABBERS IN DISTRESS.

Only 13,000 Claims to 150,000 Applications, Water Scarce and the Weather Hot.

Fort Sill, O. T., July 21.—Disorder and distress, it is feared, will follow the actual opening of the Kiowa-Commanche lands, on August 6. It is now estimated that fully 150,000 people will have registered for a chance to secure one of the 13,000 claims, to be awarded by lottery, when the registration books close on July 26.

Thousands of persons are now on the reservation who are neither mechanics nor artisans, and who have little or no money, announce their intention of locating around Lawton if they shall fail to win a claim. Campers who came in prarie schooners by the thousands, generally brought with them provisions sufficient to last only from five to ten days. Drought caused the water to be restricted and for days a hot wind has blown over the praries and the temperature has averaged above the hundred mark. With these conditions before them, many are already beginning to grumble, and when this will be forlowed by disappointment in the failure to draw a lucky number the hopes of many doubtless will give way to more serious conditions.

When a woman is in love she has about as much regard for other people as she has for herself when she is seasick.

When there are no men around to help a girl float she learns to swim mighty quick.

It's generally easier to make love to all the girls some time than to some of the girls all the time.

No woman ever gets real interested in a man until she begins to worry about whether other women think he has good taste in neckties.

NO RIGHT TO UGLINESS.

The woman who is lovely in face, form and temper will always have friends, but one who would be attractive must keep her health. If she is weak, sickly and all run down, she will be nervous and irritable. If she has constipation, or kidney trouble, her impure blood will cause pimples, blotches, skin eruptions and a wretched complexion. Electric Bitters is the best medicine in the world to regulate stomach, liver and kindneys and to purify the blood. It gives strong nerves, bright eyes, smooth, velvety skin, rich complexion. It will make a good-looking, charming woman of a run-down invalid. Only 50 cents at C. E. Holton's drug store.

Misses Jessie and Mary Belle Thomas left Saturday afternoon for White Sulphur Springs to spend a couple of weeks.

Lingerie.

Negligees of all kinds are an important consideration these very warm days, particularly. They should be dainty and pretty enough not to look 'slouchy," yet be loose and cool enough to be the essence of comfort. The kimonos of pale-tinted lawn, lightweight figure, or inexpensive wash or India dia sidk, ornamented with bands of white, is a great favorite, and possesses both the mentioned qualities. More elaborate ones, of course, are to the fore, one very charming one being of shell-pink plisse silk liberty, with yoke (from which it hangs straight down) bands, and edge of cream face. The edge of the lace formed the neck finish, as the yoke was cut with the edge around neck and there was no collar.

Fine tucking on lingeries is being used more than ever. Every piece of handsome underwear is distinguished by the quantity of fine tucks, almost like hand-made, much favored and embroidery is much preferred to lace as a trimming, although lace is not entirely out of vogue. Fine valenciennes and point de Paris and laces of a similar character still being used.

The moderate length hip, sloping toward the back, is the most comfortable as well as the newest shape in corsets. Stout women, however, will do well to cling to the long-hip model.

* * *

French women almost universally wear their corsets over all their underskirts, to obtain a smoother contour. Many of our women would do well to follow their example.

There are growing rumors of a white hose fad for wear with summer dresses, but as yet none has appeared on the street. They are so much less becoming to wear than black ones, that it is probable they will not be generally worn. The newest ones lately exhibited were of flimsy texture in beautiful open-work lace designs.

A curved front gore, at the waist line marks the newest underskirts to accommodate the straight front corset and elongated waist line.

Pall Mall Gazette.

A young officer at the front recently wrote home to his father.

"Dear Father: Kindly send me £50 at once; lost another leg in a staff engagement, and am in hospital without means."

The answer was:

"My Dear Son: As this is the fourth leg you have lost, according to your letters you ought to be accustomed to it be this time. Try and wabble along on any others you may have left."
